Accepted campers will be notified approximately one month before camp.

You can check your registration by going to our camp
website:

www.serettibasketballcamps.com

The site also will keep you updated on our other camp offerings, our free youth clinics and our community outreach programs.

Camp Director Alan Seretti will oversee all daily activities and will be assisted by his experienced camp staff. The camp staff consists of current and former college coaches and players.
Campers will be supervised at all times. Our goal is to allow campers to have a great time while giving them the opportunity to improve all fundamental basketball skills.

LIL' DEVIL DINNER CREW

FEATURES

Storybook Basketball

The Lil' Devils Lunch Bunch is designed to get beginners excited about the game of basketball. Basic basketball lessons will be taught daily using popular children's books and stories to draw a connection between their themes and the basketball skill of the day.

Fundamental Instruction

Coach Seretti and his staff focus on small station groups and the basic fundamentals of ball handling, passing, shooting and defense. Camp speakers will highlight drills and skills for every skill level.

Races & Contests

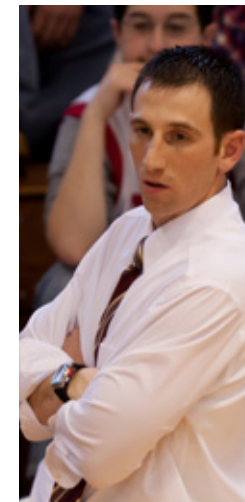

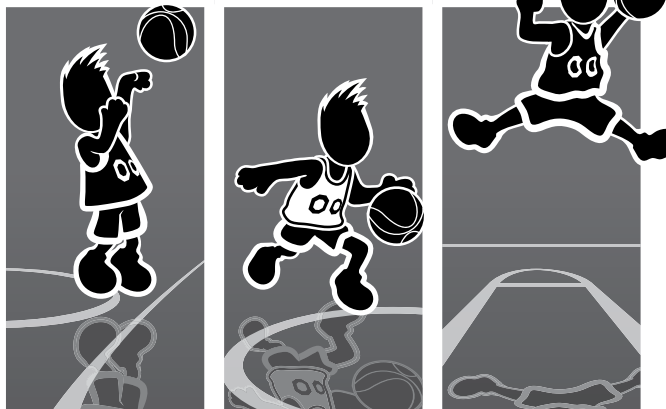

Team races will be used as a daily warm up and a contest a day will occur including, but not limited to: Free throw contest; 1-on-1 contest; Hot Shot contest; etc.

Daily Games & Prizes

Daily basketball competitions and drills designed to enhance listening skills and team work will take place and the campers will be rewarded with prizes for their participation.

Positive Teaching Environment

All campers will be encouraged to try their best regardless of skill level and will finish the week excited about learning more about basketball and wanting to come back to camp in the future.

Camp Director
Alan Seretti
Dickinson College
Head Basketball Coach

Alan Seretti recently completed his eighth season as the Dickinson College Head Men's Basketball Coach. In the past eight years the Red Devils have won two Centennial Conference Tournament Championships and one regular season crown. In three consecutive NCAA tournament appearances, Dickinson has advanced to the second round, Sweet Sixteen and Elite 8.

Coach Seretti recruited and coached Dickinson College's all-time leading scorer Gerry Wixted '15, as well as helped to develop the 1st, 3rd and 4th leading scorers in Washington & Jefferson College history as well as three of the top four scorers in Penn State Altoona history. The on-court focus has always been on individual development and building a strong base of fundamental basketball skills.

Coach Seretti has over 20 years of summer camp experience. As the Director of the Red Devil Camp series, Coach Seretti has seen the number of campers grow from 50 in year one to over 165 last summer. He also has lectured, worked and directed over fifty basketball camps including stops at some of the best camps in the country:

- Villanova Basketball Camps
- Penn State University Basketball Camps
- University of Pittsburgh Basketball Camps
- Wake Forest University Basketball Camps
- Eastern Invitational Basketball Camps
- Bob Hurley Sr. Basketball Camps
- Duquesne University Basketball Camps

Camp Staff

Camp Staff will include Dickinson College assistant coach Matt Dolan (Dickinson '11). Dickinson College players, as well as area college players, also will be working the camp sessions.
